

HSE REQUIREMENTS FOR FOOD TRADE ACTIVITY

Food and beverages trade hygiene requirements

When applying for a commercial license for food activity. A layout should be provided with a detailed plan through an approved food consulting company a final approval must be obtained from to AFZ-Property sector before starting the business. This plan shall indicate all activities, equipment, and specifications of building.

The following are the HSE conditions and requirements required for food and beverages trading :

- The general requirements to establish food premise.
- Area shall not be less than (20) square meters.
- The warehouse area must be no more than 25 degrees in which it is equipped with stainless shelves. Stainless steel shelves and stands to display food item
- Arrange and separate the food items according to their categories.
- Fridges and freezers to keep the cold food items according to the required temperature for each item equipped with thermostat.
- No food items display in the cash counter area.